Thank you for your confirmation. It does appear that the comments are incomplete. Our comments are brief, however. Here are our comments in full:

The Coalition of California Utilities Employees is pleased that the results of the California Council on Science and Technology SmartMeter™ study show that SmartMeters™ are safe. The scientific foundation that SmartMeters™ do not pose negative health effects is important to the continued deployment of PG&E's SmartMeter™ program.

Thank you,
Rachael

Ms. Koss,

Your comments were logged into the system 18 minutes ago. They don't look to be complete. If there should be more, please resubmit them to this email address.

This is the only sentence in the comments section:

"The Coalition of California Utilities Employees is pleased that the results of the California Council on Science and Technology SmartMeter"

Hello:

I just submitted public comments on the SmartMeter study through the website on behalf of Coalition of California Utility Employees. I did not receive any confirmation that my comments were received. Can you please confirm that they were.

Thank you,
Rachael Koss
